Jon,

I'm afraid not. I realize this is a policy speech that you are trying to separate from partisan politics. The fact is, though, at this point in the election process everything is partisan. I can't allow the use of our logo. It would be too easy for some people to see that as an endorsement.

Thanks for your understanding.

VMI Staff:

In response to some queries, here is some additional information:

Uniform: If you wear a military uniform, Class 8 is appropriate. You do not need to wear Class As. ACUs are not appropriate for this setting.

Simulcast: We are trying to work a video feed to another location outside of the CLE. For security reasons we cannot use Gillis for a video feed. If this can be worked it will be announced later this morning .

Length: We have been advised that Governor Romney will speak for approximately 30 minutes.

BOV Members:

We received a request approximately 48 hours ago that Governor Romney would like to speak at VMI. The event has now been finalized, and he will speak at 11:20 a.m. on Monday 8 October with the Gillis Theater in the Center for Leadership & Ethics as the tentative location. The majority of the audience will be upper-class cadets. This is an educational opportunity for cadets and some faculty & staff. We are ensuring that this is not a VMI endorsed campaign stop. No campaign literature will be passed out.

We have just received word that Governor McDonnell plans to attend.

Hi Colonel, great pleasure chatting today. I get nostalgic when I dial 540 area codes. To recap:

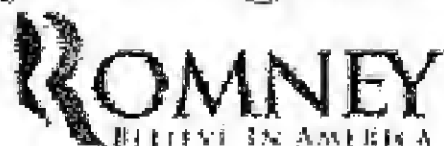

- Governor Romney will be doing a speech on 8 October, 2012. We are flexible on time.
- Speech will be a sober foreign policy vision for a Romney Administration. It is not a stump or a rally. It is designed as Presidential event that invokes the legacy of George Marshall.
- We understand these addresses can cause stress to day to day ops of the Institute, and will work with you to minimize intrusion on the workday.

Think it be a great event that raises the prestige of the Institute and provides a positive, edifying experience for the corps. Hope that we can make it work!

Let me know if you have any further questions or if I can be of any other assistance.

Cheers,

All—

Here is where this is: we have offered Gillis at 1630 on Monday. Attendees TBD, but likely first class (minus athletes) and part of another. We'll work with the Commandant on that. It will not be open to the public or staff.

This was offered to them a few minutes ago. The POC seemed receptive and is going to the other campaign staff to brief them. We'll get more later today when they call back.

According to their POC, Romney has been promising a foreign policy speech after the first debate, so their POC felt that while things are fluid this would be a "go."

This is the least painful option. Deleting Cameron solves a lot of security, public, logistics, athletic, corps size, etc. hurdles. The time and #s also have less impacts. The event from the Corps participation side should last one hour.

More to follow, but this is where we are right now.

Gents—

See below. I took a call late this morning from the Romney campaign. They want to have him make a speech here on Monday. Venue would likely be Cameron, or possibly JM Hall. Obviously, they would like the Corps present. Options for that would limit it to DTT or PTT.

Right now we need to know are there any showstoppers you are aware of that would make it difficult or impossible for us to support??

We owe them a yes or no in the near future. I need to pulse you guys first.

Plz reply if you are aware of any pitfalls out there.

Adm Leighton "Snuffy" Smith, (USN-ret), former CINCSOUTH and IFOR
Gen Lance Smith (USAF-ret), former CDR Joint Forces Command
Gen Robert Magnus, (USMC-ret) former Asst Commandant USMC

Others have been invited, but have not yet confirmed. In addition to the four-stars, there are about 10-12 one/two/three-stars who plan to attend. I will provide all the names to you by Thursday COB. Altogether, I believe we will have no more than 20.

This isn't something where we're going to roll out a red carpet for them though. We'll need to work the when and where and how many. Pogue, Moody, or Marshall Library reading room may be options. Not sure the CLE board room is conducive with the numbers. More to follow. That's what this is about.

Mitt Romney is planning a significant foreign policy speech Monday at the Virginia Military Institute, a school official confirmed to POLITICO this morning. "I'm confident it's going to happen," the official said. "Right now we're working out the details." CNN reported earlier this morning that some cadets were aware of the event planning. "Mitt Romney's big foreign policy speech in Virginia on Monday will be at VMI, a dedicated #Keydet tells me," the network's Peter Hamby wrote on Twitter.

Jeff and Gary,

I am very concerned about this. The Center for Leadership and ETHICS cannot engage in political "in kind" campaign contributions. Regardless of whether or not the Governor attends, this is a political event in a building that is only rented to outside entities for a fee. This is a campaign speech, arranged by a political campaign.

Our staff(s) time is being used, an expense for which our SOP, approved by the Institute, says we must charge fees.

We need the name of the person who will sign the contract for the campaign.

Ma'am,

When the Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps came for last year's commissioning, he had some down time and wanted to see around post a little after his speech. I was selected by the NROTC department to give him a tour because they had seen me give one and were impressed by the "fluidity and charisma with which I did it" they said. It didn't hurt that I am a registered post tour guide and a Marine option cadet.

On Monday, when governor Romney comes to town, is there any way I could give him a brief, personal tour of VMI? If he is interested, I AM a registered Republican and would love the opportunity (once in a lifetime, I'd imagine). I can also give it in fluent French, which he speaks!

Governor Romney's campaign staff including their foreign policy team looked at three states and decided VMI would be a good location because of the roots with George Marshall and the fact that their Citadel visit over a year ago was successful. I hate to disillusion you, but your email wasn't the catalyst for this.

We are getting a number of requests for personal meetings and visits. With the rather limited time he will be able to be here, I doubt if he will be able to accommodate any or very many of them. That will be up to his support staff.

You should also be aware that there is a general order covering invitations to such distinguished visitors. It requires coordination with the Superintendent's Office. I have attached it for your future reference.

Thanks for your offer and interest.

Subject: 10/8 Romney Visit

Hi Gary,

Thanks for meeting with us today and thank you for letting us use the Hall of Valor for the speech on Monday. Given the higher number of Cadets we plan to invite to the speech, do you think there is any way that we might be able to let those Cadets out of class an hour early? This will give us a much better chance of actually getting them inside the space. Secret Service has decided that everyone must go through magnetometer screening on Monday for the event. I am working with my boss to see if we can change that but it's not looking good. Anything you can do to give us more time to get Cadets into the Hall of Valor would be much appreciated. Looking forward to seeing you again tomorrow.

Best,

Gary,

That's great to know that there's a precedent to allow cadets into past events without going through mags. I'll let my Ops Director know and we'll push back with USSS. I can totally appreciate your interest in keeping the cadets in class.

Is there a way to extend invitations to those cadets who do not have 10am classes? That might help us get folks into the event a bit earlier.

How many Cadets are we planning on having in the Hall of Valor for the speech? 700 now?

Thanks,

Craig

Craig,
Great working with you all today.

We can't require cadets to miss class for the event or professors to excuse cadets/cancel their classes for the event. We can encourage cadets who do not have a 10AM class period to go to the Hall of Valor early. As I mentioned before, we've had numerous speakers here before where Secret Service allowed us to exempt the cadets from going through the time consuming magnetometer process. These speakers included: President George W. Bush, VP Cheney, Sec of State Clinton, Sec of Defense Rumsfeld, Sec of State Gates. The only other option we have is to move the start time of the speech to a later time, however, we don't have much leeway there either since we have to ensure they have adequate time for lunch before starting their afternoon classes. We'll see you tomorrow.

Gary

Captain Rabern,

I understand you are extremely busy with your daughter's wedding right now and I offer my congratulations to you and your family. I know this may be wishful thinking, but I was wondering if it would be possible for four members of the Leadership Focus Group [REDACTED] to meet Romney before he gives his foreign policy speech on Monday.

I and the other three members that have expressed this desire completely understand if this is not possible due to security, timing, and other reasons beyond our control. We thought we might ask just in case it is a real possibility as we would not want to miss such an amazing opportunity if available.

Congratulations again to you and your family.

Thank you in advance.

Subject: Governor Romney Visit -- 8 October

Cadets, Faculty, and Staff—

Earlier this week we were contacted by Governor Romney's campaign staff with a request that VMI serve as the location for an address he wished to make on foreign policy. This request has been granted and details are currently being worked out. We do know that it will occur on Monday, 8 October, at approximately 1115 hours. The location will likely be Gillis Theater and the speech will not be open to the general public. The audience will be composed mostly of cadets. VMI officials will be working tomorrow afternoon with campaign officials who will be on site to develop further details, to include the number of seats that will be available to the Corps. After that the Corps and VMI community will be notified. We also hope to have some seats available for faculty and staff if possible. Additionally, we are exploring a video-feed option to another on Post location for those who may not be able to attend in person.

This visit was just announced a couple of hours ago. As further details emerge, we will update you either via email or on the VMI website.

Sean, for the Romney speech tomorrow:

1. All first class cadets, and all seconds and thirds with ac stars form on the bricks at 1100 in "rat formation". I know that timeline is tight with class ending at 1050, but it is voluntary and we are not taking accountability or boning.
2. Any cadet that has an academic requirement during DTT must go to that academic requirement unless the professor excuses them.
3. The formation will right face and march to the CLE (Hall of Valor). The Superintendent wants it orderly, wants us all to arrive at about the same time, and does not want them walking across the parade field.
4. Uniform is Class Dyke. No duty jackets or books or anything in hands.
5. Crozet will be available for video for those who wish to watch but aren't in the group of 500. But we are not going to announce the Crozet availability until after the formation marches off.

Please send an email to the corps with the above information tonight. Please ensure turnouts to this effect are made starting before 1st CP. Please call me with any questions and text or email or call that you got this and wilco.

Thanks, LTC F

Cadet McCauley's email to the corps below FYI. He's not completely accurate in that if someone is not in formation when it steps off will not be allowed to see the address – we'll let them catch up and see the address. And, the speech is in the hall of valor, not Gillis. Governor is supposed to start talking at 1130 for approximately 30 minutes.

Another wrinkle that we just worked out this morning is that we will take a quick headcount when we form up, and if there are not 500 cadets in formation, we will make a turn-out that states "there is a possibility of some empty seats at the Governor Romney speech... any Second Classman wanting to try to see the speech needs to form in front of Jackson statue immediately to march to the CLE."

Corps,

For Governor Romney's address tomorrow, the entire First Class as well as all Second and Third classmen with academic stars will form on the Bricks at 1100 in an Old Corps meal-formation. Any cadet with an existing academic requirement is excused from the formation if the professor does not cancel. We realize that an 1100 formation for those with a 1000 class is a tight timeline, so no one will be boned for being late; that said, if someone is not in formation when it steps off, then that person will not be allowed to see the address. The uniform will be class dyke with no duty jacket; no one will be allowed to carry anything (notebooks, cell phones, books, etc.) in his or her hands. All those in the formation will then march to the CLE and fall out into the Gillis Theatre for the address.

If there are any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Very Respectfully,

Corps,

I hope everyone didn't eut too loose for Homecoming and have made it back to Barracks in one piece. Attached is the training schedule for the upcoming week. Of particular note this week is that the DTT speaker on Monday will be Governor Mitt Romney in the Gillis Theatre. Also this week will be Fall FTX for all commissioning cadets; for all commissioning non-Army cadets, be aware that, although ROTC Control ends on the matrix at 1200, all ROTCs have control of their cadets until 1800 on Sunday. Below are additional things of note:

Monday:
0700 - Uniform Inspection
1105 - Governor Romney address in Gillis for 1/C and 2/C

Tuesday:
1605 - Club Sports / Rat Challenge

Wednesday:
1105 - 3/C CCC Briefing in Mallory Hall / Band Practice

Thursday:
1605 - ROTC Control

Friday:
1605 - ROTC Control / Army FTX

Saturday:
0800 - ROTC Control

I hope everyone has a pleasant week and, as always, feel free to ask me or any member of the S3 Staff if there are any questions.

Very Respectfully,

See below. I took a call late this morning from the Romney campaign. They want to have him make a speech here on Monday. Venue would likely be Cameron, or possibly JM Hall. Obviously, they would like the Corps present. Options for that would limit it to DTT or PTT.

Right now we need to know are there any showstoppers you are aware of that would make it difficult or impossible for us to support??

We owe them a yes or no in the near future. I need to pulse you guys first.

Plz reply if you are aware of any pitfalls out there.

Thx

Hi Colonel, great pleasure chatting today. I get nostalgic when I dial 540 area codes. To recap:

- Governor Romney will be doing a speech on 8 October, 2012. We are flexible on time.
- Speech will be a sober foreign policy vision for a Romney Administration. It is not a stump or a rally. It is designed as Presidential event that invokes the legacy of George Marshall.
- We understand these addresses can cause stress to day to day ops of the Institute, and will work with you to minimize intrusion on the workday.

Think it be a great event that raises the prestige of the Institute and provides a positive, edifying experience for the corps. Hope that we can make it work!

Let me know if you have any further questions or if I can be of any other assistance.

Cheers,

We were thinking for purposes of your exhibitors coming in for set up, if we told them to come in after 1300 hours would that work? That would mean the Romney event would be over, parking lot would be hopefully cleared out, and the security piece would be not a problem. Is that do-able?

Col Bissell – I'm connecting you with Carl Smith, who is handling flag officer attendance for Monday. He estimates no more than 20 officers in attendance. Most will be 4-stars. The list is still fluid as of this afternoon. They will be formally endorsing the Governor on Monday morning. If possible, we'd like to set up a side conference room where they can meet with the Governor for 20-30 minutes.

Carl, Col Bissell works in the Superintendent's office at VMI. He's your best protocol POC for the event. I've also cc'd relevant advance and HQ staff.

Gen PX Kelly, (USMC-ret), former Commandant USMC

Adm Leighton "Snuffy" Smith, (USN-ret), former CINCSOUTH and IFOR

Gen Robert Magnus, (USMC-ret) former Asst Commandant USMC

Others have been invited, but have not yet confirmed. In addition to the four-stars, there are about 10-12 one/two/three-stars who plan to attend. I will provide all the names to you by Thursday COB. Altogether, I believe we will have no more than 20.
